SCAM SUSPECT MAY HAVE TARGETED DENVER VICTIMS

A 43-year-old man arrested in Longmont yesterday, suspected of trying to scam an elderly woman with phony tree-trimming work, may have also targeted Denver victims.

Ollie Eddington (dob: 12-08-66) was arrested yesterday in Longmont for investigation of theft and wrongs to at-risk adults; he remains in custody in the Boulder County Jail.

Further investigation indicates additional victims in other jurisdictions, including at least two identified victims in Denver. Anyone with information about additional victims should contact their local law enforcement agency. In Denver, contact the Denver District Attorney's Office Economic Crime Unit at 720-913-9179.
