The Crime Victim Right's Amendment of the Colorado Constitution, affords you many rights under the law, one of which is the right to be informed of any critical stages pertaining to the probation supervision of an offender. You can be informed by enrolling in the Probation Dept.'s Victim Notification Program.

To enroll, please, fill out the "Request for Notification Form" below and mail it to:

Ed Castillo-Victim Services Officer
303 W. Colfax Ave. Suite 501
Denver, CO 80204

You may also enroll in the Victim Notification Program by emailing your notification form to eduardo.castillo@judicial.state.co.us, or call 303.607.7049 or fax it to: 303.607.7002-ATTN:Ed Castillo

Upon receiving your written, verbal, facsimile or electronic enrollment form, the notification process begins and you shall be kept informed of any critical stage(s) related to the supervision of the offender. It is your responsibility to notify the Victim Services Officer of any changes in your address, phone number or email address. You may enroll in or opt out of the Victim Notification Program at any time.
