Denver DA Beth McCann Statement on the Resignation of Kristin Bronson

DENVER – Yesterday morning, Denver Mayor Michael Hancock announced that City Attorney Kristin Bronson will resign her position effective Nov. 2.

The following statement is to be attributed to Denver District Attorney Beth McCann.

“Kristin Bronson has been an exceptional leader serving Denver through some of the most challenging years we have seen. I have enjoyed working with her and admire her legal and personal skills in a very tough job. She has been an integral part of this community, a true public servant and has provided excellent leadership to the city. Kristin will be sorely missed.”
