SCHOOL EMPLOYEE PLEADS GUILTY IN STUDENT ASSAULT

A man charged with using a stun gun to discipline a 13-year-old middle school student earlier this year has pleaded guilty in connection with the case.

Shaun Ellis (dob: 05-28-81) pleaded guilty today to second-degree assault (F4).

Ellis was working in an after-school program in January 2006 when he pulled the student out of class and took him to the school auditorium where he used a stun gun as a form of discipline.

Ellis is scheduled to be sentenced on November 7, 2006 at 8:30 in Denver District Courtroom 23. He faces probation up to 6 years in prison.
