MAN CHARGED IN ATTACK AT 'AA' MEETING

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a man accused of attacking people at an Alcoholics Anonymous meeting last week.

Fabin Guzman (dob: 10-10-85) is charged with first-degree burglary (F3), two counts of first-degree assault (F3), second-degree assault (F4), three counts of third-degree assault (M1) and criminal mischief (F4).

The charges allege that Guzman was one of several men who burst into a meeting room in the 2500 block of Welton Street on April 18, 2006 and assaulted people attending a meeting.

Guzman remains in custody in the Denver County Jail. His bond is set at $75,000. He is scheduled to appear in Denver County Court, room 12T, on April 26, 2006 at 9 a.m. to be advised of the charges.

The investigation continues.
