TWO CHARGED WITH NEIGHBOR'S MURDER

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has charged two men with murder after their neighbor was found dead last week behind the apartment home they shared.

Jonathan Hall (dob: 12-15-86) and Anthony Soto (dob: 01-12-88) are both charged with first-degree murder (F1) and first-degree felony murder (F1). The charges were filed May 26, 2006.

The body of 43-year-old William Murray was found early Sunday morning, May 21, 2006. The charges allege that Hall and Soto were with the victim in a common area of the apartment home they shared when the two men killed Murray for his prescription medication.

Hall and Soto remain in custody without bond in the Denver County Jail and are scheduled to be formally advised of the charges today, May 31, 2006 at 9 a.m. in Denver County Court, room 12T.
