A limousine driver is facing a careless driving charge in connection with an accident that severely injured a student from Denver East High School on prom night.

Stanley Sample (dob: 05-02-68) was served a criminal summons and complaint this afternoon charging him with one count of careless driving resulting in serious bodily injury (M1).

The charge alleges that on May 13, 2006 Sample was driving a limousine in a careless manner and caused serious bodily injury to a 17-year-old young woman, Molly Bloom.

The presumptive range for sentencing on a class 1 traffic misdemeanor is up to 12 months in jail and a fine of up to $1,000.
