CHARGES FILED IN SHOOTING THAT INJURED TWO GIRLS

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has charged an 18-year-old in connection with the drive-by shooting of two Denver girls that occurred on March 29, 2006.

Miguel Sanders (DOB: 10-31-87) is charged with two counts of attempted first-degree murder (F2) and two counts of first-degree assault (F3). Additionally, two 'crime of violence' counts have been filed.

The charges allege that Sanders was driving a vehicle from which shots were fired, injuring a 14-year-old and 6-year-old in the 2800 block of East 37th Avenue on March 29, 2006.

Sanders was arrested on April 5, 2006, surrendering to Denver police detectives after learning that a warrant for his arrest had been issued. He remains in custody in the Denver County Jail. Bond has been set at $200,000. He is scheduled to appear for his second advisement on April 12, 2006 at 9 a.m. in Denver County Court, room 12T.

Formal charges have not been filed against Marquise Davis (DOB: 05-12-86), a suspect who was arrested earlier.
