NIGHTCLUB MANAGER CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a 39-year-old man in connection with the death of a man outside a Denver nightclub in late August.

Bryan Coe (dob: 11-16-68) is charged with reckless manslaughter (F4).

On August 30, 2008 at approximately 1:30 a.m., the victim, 41-year-old Gabriel Pico, was involved in an altercation in front of the Diamond Cabaret that led to a scuffle between several people. The charge alleges that as part of the altercation, Coe pinned the victim on the ground in a choke hold and that his actions caused Pico's death.

Two other men involved with the altercation were charged earlier with second-degree assault.

Coe has been released on a $25,000 bond. He is scheduled to appear in Denver County Courtroom 12T, on November 3, 2008 at 9 a.m. to be advised of the charge. The presumptive range for sentencing on a class four felony is two to six years in the Department of Corrections.
