MAN CONVICTED IN MOTHER'S MURDER

A Denver jury has convicted a 65-year-old man of murdering his own mother two years ago. Her body was found in an apartment they shared after neighbors complained of a bad odor.

Donald "Marty" Currier (dob: 02-19-43) was found guilty yesterday of first-degree murder (F1) in the death of 86-year-old Mary Currier. It is believed she was shot and killed sometime between April 21, 2006 and May 4, 2006. Her body was found May 4, 2006 by building maintenance workers who were investigating reports of an odor. Currier was arrested by Denver police detectives on June 14, 2006 at a bar when he allegedly tried to use his mother's credit card.

Currier will be sentenced tomorrow, May 29, 2008 at 1:30 p.m. in Denver District Courtroom 16. He faces life in prison without parole.
