MAN CHARGED IN HOMICIDE

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a man in connection with the death of his girlfriend.

James Greenwood (DOB: 01-24-1980) is charged with first-degree murder (F1) and cultivation of marihuana (F4).

The charges allege that on the morning of February 17, 2008, near the 1400 block of St. Paul Street in Denver, Greenwood fatally stabbed Antoinette Clark (DOB 07-14-1985) in the home they shared. The charges also allege Greenwood had numerous marihuana plants growing inside the house.

Greenwood is currently being held in the Denver County Jail without bond. His second advisement is scheduled for February 25, 2008, at 9:00 a.m. in courtroom 12T.
