GUILTY VERDICT IN LUTHER HILL TRIAL

A man accused of attacking a woman in a bathroom at the Kaiser Permanente medical campus two years ago has been found guilty by a Denver jury.

Luther Hill (dob: 09-06-64) was found guilty of kidnapping, sexual assault, unlawful sexual contact and possession of a controlled substance. The jury deliberated only a couple of hours before returning the verdicts early this afternoon.

Denver Deputy DA Alfredo Hernandez and Deputy DA Simone Montoya prosecuted the week-long case. Hill is set for sentencing on August 15, 2008 at 1:30 p.m. in Denver District Courtroom 3. He will face an indeterminate to life sentence.

Hill was accused holding a woman against her will and sexually assaulting her on the morning of August 3, 2006. He also confronted two other women before leaving the area. He was arrested by Denver police two days later.
