WOMAN SENTENCED IN VEHICULAR HOMICIDE

A woman who killed two teenagers in November 2006 as they were walking home from school has been sentenced today.

Sandra Maul (dob: 05-22-42) was sentenced to 8 years in prison today, four years on each count.

She was driving on Federal Boulevard on November 17, 2006, when she veered up onto the sidewalk in the 1800 block of South Federal Boulevard, striking 14-year-old Nhan Nguyen and Jessie Aguirre.

She pleaded guilty earlier to two counts of vehicular homicide (F4).
