FORMER TEACHER SENTENCED IN 2008 SEX ASSAULT CASE

A 27-year-old former Sheridan High School teacher accused of sexually assaulting a student in November 2008 has been sentenced in connection with the case today.

Melissa Snow (dob: 08-11-81) pleaded guilty earlier to attempted sexual assault on a child (F5). Snow was sentenced today to 8 years of sex offender intensive supervision probation.

Under the terms of the probation, Snow may have no contact with anyone under the age of 18 until approved by the probation department, she must maintain full-time employment, complete a victim empathy course, and register as a sex offender.
