GUILTY VERDICT IN TRIMBLE CASE

A Denver jury has returned guilty verdicts in the murder and sexual assault case against Willie Trimble in which he was accused of sexually assaulting a 61-year-old woman who later died from hypothermia.

Willie Trimble (dob: 02-13-62) was found guilty of first-degree murder (F1) and sexual assault of an at-risk adult (F3) this afternoon. The jury deliberated just more than two hours before reaching a decision in the case, which was prosecuted by Deputy DA Joshua Franklin and Chief Deputy DA Kerri Lombardi.

Trimble faces life in prison without parole. His sentencing date will be set next week when he appears in Denver District Court for a status hearing on a second pending case. He is charged with kidnapping and multiple counts of sexual assault in connection with an attack on a woman that occurred in 1997.
