TWO MEN SENTENCED FOR PERJURY AND CONTEMPT

Two men who lied to a Denver Grand Jury and then later refused to testify during the Willie Clark trial earlier this year have been sentenced today.

Kataina “Markie” Jackson-Keeling (dob: 07-01-88) and Mario Anderson (dob: 06-02-87) pleaded guilty earlier to accessory to perjury (F5), and as part of a guilty plea agreement admitted they were in direct contempt of the Court in the March 2010 Clark trial. They were sentenced today to 12 months in the Denver County jail for direct contempt and 4 years of probation with 90 days in jail for accessory to perjury. The 90 day sentence will be served concurrent with the 12 month sentence.
