CHARGES FILED IN I-PAD ROBBERY

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a man accused of injuring a man and stealing his newly purchased iPad two weeks ago.

Brandon Smith (08-18-89) is charged with robbery (F4) and third-degree assault (M).

The charges allege that on April 15, 2010, Smith grabbed a bag containing an iPad from a man who had just purchased it from an Apple store. The bag was wrapped around the victim's hand, and the charges further allege that as Smith grabbed the bag there was enough force to tear away the skin from the pinky finger of the left hand.

Smith was later identified as a suspect by the Denver Police Department and was taken into custody at his home without incident on April 24, 2010.

He remains in custody in the Denver County Jail; his bond is set at $200,000. He is scheduled to appear in Denver County Courtroom 472 to be advised of the charges on Friday, April 30, 2010 at 1:30 p.m.
