MAN SENTENCED IN INDECENT EXPOSURE CASES

A man who repeatedly exposed himself in public places in front of children, and recorded consensual sex with a number of women without their knowledge, was sentenced today to three years in the Colorado Department of Corrections. The sentence was suspended upon successful completion of two years in the Denver County Jail and eight years of intensive supervised probation.

Raymond Swisher (dob: 03-18-66) pleaded guilty earlier to two counts of sexual exploitation of a child and possession of pornographic material (F6) and unlawful sexual contact (M1).

Swisher, who exposed himself repeatedly in public places over the last several years, and also secretly recorded consensual sex with a number of women without their knowledge. During the investigation, DVDs and video cassettes were seized from Swisher's residence.

Swisher, who remained in custody following the hearing, was remanded to immediately begin his sentence.
