MAN CHARGED IN CAB DRIVER SHOOTING

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a man in connection with the shooting of a cab driver that took place in Denver on June 7, 2010.

Emmanuel Theus-Roberts (DOB: 10-02-89) is charged with attempted first-degree murder (F2), first-degree assault (F3), aggravated robbery (F3), and second-degree assault (F3).

The charges allege that on the night of June 7, 2010, Theus-Roberts shot a 44-year-old cab driver once in the chest while trying to rob him. Theus-Roberts was later found hiding in the 3100 block of Race Street by a police canine and was taken into custody. The victim was taken to Denver Health Medical Center where he remains in critical condition.

Theus-Roberts remains in custody in the Denver Detention Center; his bond is set at $1,000,000. He is scheduled to appear in Denver District Courtroom 472W tomorrow, June 18, 2010, at 10:30 a.m. to be formally advised of the charges.
