MAN CHARGED IN CRIMES THAT PRECEDED SHOOTING

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a man accused of robbery and other crimes that preceded an officer-involved shooting last week.

Justin Martinez (dob: 09-12-90) is charged with two counts of aggravated robbery (F3), menacing (F5) and second-degree assault (F4).

The charges allege that on October 18, 2011, Martinez participated in a robbery at a store in the 1400 block of Krameria Street. Martinez ran from the scene and was arrested by Denver police officers about a block away. A second, armed suspect in the robbery was shot by officers and died later at the hospital.

Martinez remains in custody in the Denver Detention Center; his bond is set at $100,000. He is scheduled to appear in Denver County Courtroom 2100 on October 27, 2011 at 9:30 a.m. to be formally advised of the charges.
