MAN SENTENCED IN HIT/RUN CRASH THAT INJURED BOY

A man who pleaded guilty earlier in connection with a hit and run crash earlier this year that left a young boy with serious injuries has been sentenced today.

Jesse Rincon (dob: 12-16-37) pleaded guilty earlier to leaving the scene of an accident resulting in serious bodily injury (F6). He was sentenced today to 10 years of probation including the condition that he is not to drive. He was also ordered to pay $13,785 in restitution.

On March 13, 2011 at about 3:30 p.m., Rincon was driving westbound on Evans Avenue when he hit a 12-year-old boy who was crossing Evans at Federal Boulevard and then kept going. Witnesses followed the car and were able to direct police to Rincon's location in the 2200 block of south Hooker Street where he was taken into custody without incident.
