PROTESTER FOUND GUILTY

A woman from Winter Park who regularly protests at abortion clinics was found guilty today by a Denver County Court jury of two misdemeanor counts related to an incident that occurred last year.

Jo Ann Scott (dob: 07-27-52) was found guilty of engaging in prohibited activities near a health care facility (M3) and harassment (M3). A Class 3 misdemeanor carries a maximum penalty of 6 months in the Denver County Jail.

Scott was arrested outside of the Planned Parenthood Healthcare Facility at 7155 East 38th Ave on April 2, 2010 after unlawfully approaching a woman who was entering the facility.

Denver Deputy District Attorney Blake Harrison and Deputy District Attorney Jason Kramer tried the case.

Scott is scheduled to appear for sentencing in Denver County Courtroom 3B at 9:00 a.m. on June 6, 2011.
