MAN SENTENCED IN SEXUAL ASSAULT CASE

The second of two men convicted of sexually assaulting a woman on St. Patrick's Day in March 2010 has been sentenced.

Jacob Roy Wilson (dob: 10-09-79) was found guilty earlier this year of four counts of sexual assault and has been sentenced to 16 years-to-life in prison.

Wilson and co-defendant Joshua Holley met the 22-year-old victim on March 17, 2010 as she was celebrating St. Patrick's Day with friends. Holley and Wilson offered to help her find her friends when she became separated, but instead took her into a nearby parking garage and sexually assaulted her. A Crime Stoppers tip helped lead to their identification as suspects.

Holley was also convicted of four counts of sexual assault and sentenced to 16 years-to-life in prison.
