WOMAN SENTENCED IN BITING ATTACK

A woman accused of assaulting two people by biting them has been sentenced in connection with the incident today.

Emi Coleman (dob: 08-17-81) pleaded guilty earlier to third-degree assault (M1) in connection with an incident that took place on November 7, 2011 at a convenience store near 47th Avenue and Tower Road.

Coleman entered the store and groped a male customer before biting the man on the neck and then biting a female store clerk on the neck.

She was sentenced to one year of supervised probation that also includes serving 30 days in the Denver County Jail, another 60 days of in-home detention, drug and alcohol treatment, mental health treatment and anger management treatment.
