MAN CHARGED IN ATTEMPTED MURDERS

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged an 18-year-old man with the attempted murder of two women on July 12, 2012.

Deonte Crews (dob: 3-29-94) is charged with 2 counts of criminal attempt to commit murder in the first-degree and one count of first-degree assault.

The charges allege that Crews fired upon a group of people while they were standing outside a home in the 4400 block of Dillon Street. A 43-year-old woman was struck in the back by a bullet.

Crews is currently in custody and is being held on a $250,000 bond. He is scheduled to appear in Denver County Courtroom 2100 on July 19, 2012, at 9:30 am for his 2nd advisement.
