MAN WANTED IN ANIMAL CRUELTY CASE

A man, who was scheduled to appear for sentencing today for neglect and mistreatment of his two Irish Setters, failed to appear in Denver County Court and a warrant is out for his arrest.

Corey Haveman (dob: 05-05-79): pleaded guilty earlier to cruelty to animals-neglect and mistreatment (M1) and was scheduled to be sentenced to 60 days in jail as part of the guilty plea.

On December 12, 2010, the two Irish Setters, Naoi and O'Malley, were removed from Haveman's home in Lo-Do. Naoi later died from malnutrition. O'Malley, who weighed only 30 pounds when he was rescued, took months to recover. O'Malley has been placed in a home and is now healthy and happy.
