MAN CHARGED IN ROAD RAGE INCIDENT

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a man accused of threatening people in a passing vehicle and then assaulting a passenger.

Salvador Negrette Jr. (dob: 06-13-93) is charged today with four counts of felony menacing (F5), kidnapping (F4) and third degree assault (M1).

The charges allege that on June 8, 2012, the victims were in a car driving near East 1st Avenue and North Crown Boulevard when Negrette pulled up next to them and brandished a black handgun. The victims sped away but then crashed into a parked car. The charges further allege that after the crash Negrette pulled a female victim out of the car and assaulted her.

Negrette remains in custody in the Denver Detention Center; his bond is set at $50,000. He is scheduled to appear for his second advisement in Denver County Courtroom 2100 on Friday, June 15, 2012 at 9:30 AM.
