MAN SENTENCED IN ATTEMPTED ROBBERY

A man involved in a violent attempted robbery that occurred earlier this year, has pleaded guilty and sentenced in connection with this case.

Nicholas Zentz (dob: 03-05-1986) pleaded guilty to one count of attempted robbery (F5). He was sentenced to three years in the Colorado Department of Corrections.

On January 26, 2012, Zentz attempted to hold up a Walgreens pharmacy on Green Valley Ranch Boulevard. When police arrived on the scene, shots were fired. Zentz assaulted an officer and stole her gun.
