TWO CHARGED AS AN ACCESSORY IN FATAL HIT/RUN CRASH

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged two more people in connection with a fatal hit/run crash that occurred last week at 13th Avenue and Kalamath Street.

Kelly Carey-Morehead (dob: 12-09-69) and Kiki Douglas (dob: 05-29-82) are both charged with being an accessory to crime (F5) and false reporting to authorities (M3).

The charges allege that they provided false identifying information and rendered other assistance to Latoya Nelson (dob: 10-30-83) following a fatal hit/run crash on March 27, 2013, that claimed the life of 85-year-old Charlie Herrera.

Nelson is accused of causing the fatal crash and fleeing from the scene. She was charged earlier with vehicular homicide (F4), leaving the scene of an accident resulting in death (F3), criminal impersonation (F6) and third-degree assault (M1).

Douglas and Carey-Morehead have been released from custody and are scheduled to appear in Denver County Courtroom 2100 on April 16, 2013, at 1:30 p.m. to be formally advised of the charges. Nelson remains in custody and is scheduled to appear in Denver County Courtroom 2100 on April 22, 2013, at 8:30 a.m. for a preliminary hearing.
