MAN CHARGED IN SERIES OF SEXUAL ASSAULTS

Denver DA Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a man already accused of two attacks with a new set of charges in connection with a third sexual assault.

Isaiah Hunter (dob: 01-18-91) was charged earlier this year in connection with a February 4, 2013 attack on a woman near 30th Avenue and Downing Street, and an April 13, 2013 attack on a woman near 26th Avenue and Tremont Place. In those cases he was charged with six counts of sexual assault, six counts of second-degree kidnapping, two counts of menacing and attempted second-degree assault.

He has now been charged in connection with a new case that occurred in February 2011, in which a woman was attacked near Colfax Avenue and Quebec Street. The additional charges include two counts of kidnapping (F2), sexual assault (F3) and robbery (F4).

Hunter remains in custody; his bond is set at $350,000. He is scheduled to appear next in Denver County Courtroom 2100 on July 23, 2013, at 8:30 for a preliminary hearing.
