GUILTY PLEA IN PHONY BRONCOS TICKET SALES

A man accused of selling phony Denver Broncos tickets last fall has pleaded guilty.

William Campbell (dob: 08-16-50) pleaded guilty to forgery (F5) and faces up to one year in the Colorado Department of Corrections when he is sentenced next month.

Campbell was arrested in October 2013, when a Denver police officer purchased forged tickets from Campbell in an undercover operation.

Campbell is scheduled to appear for sentencing in Denver District Courtroom 5E at 8:30 a.m. on April 3, 2014.
