WOMAN CHARGED WITH VEHICULAR ASSAULT

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a woman in connection with a vehicular assault that occurred last week at the intersection of Colfax Avenue and Speer Boulevard in which 6 people were injured.

Emily Strock (dob:12-01-90) is charged with two counts of vehicular assault (F4), four counts of third degree assault (M1), one count of driving under the influence of drugs (M) and one count of no proof of insurance (T1)

The charges allege that Strock was driving at a high rate speed eastbound on Colfax Avenue at about 2:30 a.m. on July 21, 2014 when she went through a red light and collided with another vehicle traveling southbound on Speer Boulevard. The charges further allege that Strock was under the influence of marijuana at the time.
