MAN CONVICTED IN SERIES OF SEXUAL ASSAULTS

A man accused in a series of sexual assaults has been found guilty at trial by a Denver jury. The jury returned its verdicts late yesterday.

Isaiah Hunter (dob: 01-18-91) was found guilty of one count of sexual assault with force (F2) and two counts of sexual assault (F3). The jury was deadlocked on other counts of kidnapping and robbery. The case was prosecuted by Denver Deputy DA Courtney Johnston and Chief Deputy DA Henry Cooper.

Hunter was found guilty in a February 4, 2013, assault on a woman near 30th Avenue and Downing Street, an April 13, 2013, assault on a woman near 26th Avenue and Tremont Place, and a February 11, 2011, assault on a woman near Colfax Avenue and Quebec Street.

Hunter remains in custody; he is scheduled to appear for sentencing on June 8, 2015, at 8:30 a.m. in Denver District Courtroom 5H. He faces an indeterminate to life sentence.
