MAN SENTENCED IN FATAL 2013 SHOOTING

A 22-year-old man who pleaded guilty in connection with a triple shooting in 2013 has been sentenced.

Tayvon Martin (dob: 08-05-92) pleaded guilty earlier to second-degree murder (F2) and second-degree assault (F4) and was sentenced in Denver District Court this week to 32 years in prison. He was also ordered to pay $11,498.69 in restitution.

Martin confronted and shot three people in the 1200 block of Albion Street on June 22, 2013. One of the victims, 21-year-old Gabriel Scott, later died. A 24-year-old man and a 20-year-old woman were also shot and survived.

Martin was identified as a suspect by the Denver Police Department shortly after the shooting, but fled the state. Detectives learned he had returned to the Denver area and was arrested on February 3, 2014. He has been remanded to the Colorado Department of Corrections to begin serving his sentence.
