MAN CHARGED IN DOWNTOWN SHOOTING

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a man in connection with a downtown shooting last week.

Chisom Nwandilibe (03-16-87) has been charged with attempted first-degree murder (F2), first-degree assault (F3), menacing (F5), and possession of a weapon by previous offender (F6).

The charges allege that at about 11:30 p.m. on May 25, 2015, Nwandilibe pointed a gun at several people as he walked by them near 15th and California Streets. Denver police responded to the area, located the suspect, and shots were exchanged. Nwandilibe was taken into custody after being shot in the arm and was then transported to the hospital for treatment.

At the time of his arrest, Nwandilibe had a warrant for his arrest for a probation violation out of Denver.

Nwandilibe remains in custody on a $100,000 bond. He is scheduled to appear in Denver County Courtroom 2100 on June 8, 2015, at 8:30 a.m. for his second advisement on the new charges.
