GUILTY PLEA IN POLICE SHOOTING

A man accused of shooting at police officers while in police custody last May has pleaded guilty in connection with the case.

Isaac Vigil (dob: 04-09-82) pleaded guilty to attempted first degree-murder (F2) yesterday in Denver District Court.

On May 14, 2014, Vigil was arrested on a felony warrant related to drug charges and was in custody at the Denver District 4 police station when he fired a gun at police officers. Vigil was sitting in the back seat of a patrol car when he fired a gun that he had hidden.

He remains in custody in the Denver Detention Center. He is scheduled to appear for sentencing in Denver District Courtroom 5D on May 21, 2015, at 8:30 a.m.
