MAN FOUND GUILTY OF ATTEMPTED MURDER IN POLICE SHOOTING

A man accused of shooting at police officers while in police custody last May has been found guilty for attempted murder.

Isaac Vigil (dob: 04-09-82) pleaded guilty to attempted first degree-murder (F2) April 9th in Denver District Court.

On May 14, 2014, Vigil was arrested on a felony warrant related to drug charges and was in custody at the Denver District 4 police station when he fired a gun at police officers. Vigil was sitting in the back seat of a patrol car when he fired a gun that he had hidden.

Vigil was sentenced today to 35 years in the Department of Corrections followed by five years mandatory parole.
