MAN CHARGED IN HOME INVASION ROBBERY

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a 36-year-old man in connection with a home invasion robbery that occurred in September.

Jason Wood (dob: 08-23-79) is charged with three counts of aggravated robbery (F3), two counts of second-degree assault (F4) and two counts of first-degree burglary (F3).

The charges allege that on September 30, 2015, Wood and a co-defendant went into a home in 3800 block of Perry Street, assaulted two people, and then stole tattoo equipment and a woman's purse.

The co-defendant, Jennifer Lovato (dob: 08-03-76) was charged earlier in connection with the case and is facing two counts of aggravated robbery (F3) and one count of second-degree burglary (F3).

Wood was arrested following an officer involved shooting last week and remains in custody in connection with both the robbery and the shooting. His bond is set at $50,000 in the robbery case and $500,000 in the officer shooting case. He is scheduled to appear in Denver County Courtroom 2100 on Wednesday, December 16, 2015, at 8:30 a.m. to be formally advised of the charges in the robbery case.

Formal charges in the shooting case are expected to be filed later this week.
