MAN CHARGED IN MURDER

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a man accused in a murder and an assault that occurred on Osceola Street last month.

Daniel Gutierrez (dob: 08-23-85) is charged with first-degree murder (F1) and second-degree assault (F4).

The charges allege that on April 22, 2016, Gutierrez shot and killed 30-year-old Jairo Perez and assaulted another man with a chain in the 200 block of Osceola Street, before being arrested by Denver police.

Gutierrez remains in custody without bond and will appear in Denver District Court later this week to be formally advised of the charges.
