NOT GUILTY VERDICT IN CHILD SEX ASSAULT CASE

A man accused of sexually assaulting two children in a case originally charged in 2013 has been found not guilty today by a Denver jury.

Timothy Jason Martinez (dob: 06-14-65) was acquitted of four counts of sexual assault on a child.

Martinez remains out on bond in an unrelated 2015 case in which he is charged with second degree assault with a deadly weapon (F4) and third degree assault (M1). These charges allege that Martinez assaulted two men in January 2015.

He is scheduled to appear in Denver District Court for a motions hearing on August 19, 2016 at 1:30 in courtroom 5G on that case.
