GUILTY PLEA IN DUI

A state representative arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol earlier this year has pleaded guilty in connection with the case.

Dan Pabon (dob: 10-18-77) pleaded guilty to DUI (M) and was sentenced today.

Pabon was sentenced to one year of probation with the following conditions:

- Attend a victim impact panel

- Perform 56 hours of useful public service

- Attend alcohol education and treatment as required by probation

- Undergo monitored sobriety

- Pay court costs and fees of $1,303

Pabon was arrested for DUI on March 17, 2016 at about 11:30 p.m. at Colfax Avenue and Glenarm Place.

The case was prosecuted by Denver Deputy District Attorney Bree Gorynski.
