FORMER OFFICER CHARGED WITH DRUG COUNTS

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a former police officer today with multiple felony drug counts.

Hubert “Marty” Vanover (dob: 04-01-63) is charged with possession with intent to manufacture or distribute marijuana or marijuana concentrate (DF2), possession of a controlled substance (DF4), and two counts of possession of marijuana or marijuana concentrate (DF4 and DM1).

The charges are the result of a Denver police investigation that began over the summer following an anonymous complaint of the odor of marijuana coming from a home at 4931 S. Field Way. Vanover, who owns the home, was arrested last week as he was driving by the home while officers were executing a search warrant.

He has been released from custody on a $2,000 personal recognizance bond and is scheduled to appear in Denver County Courtroom 2100 on October 21, 2016, at 8 a.m., to be formally advised of the charges.
