TWO MEN CHARGED IN RESTAURANT ROBBERY

Denver District Attorney Beth McCann has formally charged two men accused of robbing a Denver restaurant and patrons.

Lawrence A. Evans (dob: 10-04-1990) and Jamal R. Bullock (dob: 12-02-1986) are both charged with six counts of 2d degree kidnapping (F2), six counts of aggravated robbery (F3), eight counts of criminal attempt to commit aggravated robbery (F4), and eight counts of 2d degree kidnapping (F4).

The charges allege that on the night of January 13, 2017, three armed suspects, Bullock, Evans and a third individual entered La Frontera Steak House at 4745 North Federal Boulevard demanded, and obtained money from the restaurant and patrons. When the two defendants left the restaurant, Denver Police captured them as they were trying to dispose of the money from their possession.

Charges were filed on January 20, and 2nd advisement was held yesterday. A preliminary hearing for both is scheduled for February 13, 2017, in Denver County Courtroom 2100 at 8:00 a.m. Bond was set at $100,000 for each defendant.
