Denver District Attorney Beth McCann has filed charges against a man in connection with a fight on Larimer Street.

Jordan Anthony Padilla (dob: 08-06-1990) is charged with two counts of assault in the first degree (F3). Padilla was arrested on February 22, and charges were filed on February 24.

The charges allege that in the early morning hours of December 19, 2016, Padilla was engaged in a fight with a male victim after the victim left one of the LoDo bars in the 2000 block of Larimer Street. The victim was allegedly repeatedly kicked and punched several times after falling to the ground. According to the Denver Health Medical Center medical report, the victim reportedly suffered “multiple facial fractures”.
