Denver DA Charges Woman in Officer Stabbing Incident

DENVER—Denver District Attorney Beth McCann today announced that Alicia Esquibel (age 38) was charged with four felony counts after allegedly stabbing a Denver police officer multiple times causing serious bodily injury.

On January, 6, 2021, the officer was attempting to take a suspect into custody for trespassing and harassment at a hotel located at 620 N. Federal Blvd. Esquibel was arrested at the scene. The officer is now out of the hospital and recovering from his injuries.

Esquibel faces one count of criminal attempt to commit murder in the first degree (F2), two counts of assault in the first degree (F3), and with committing a crime of violence which is a sentence enhancing charge. Case number 21CR00113 will be heard in Denver District Court courtroom 5H.
