Seven Years After Stacy Feldman’s Murder a Denver Jury Finds Robert Feldman Guilty

DENVER—Today, after deliberating for approximately two hours, a Denver jury found Robert Feldman (age 58) guilty of murdering his 44-year-old wife, Stacy Feldman, on March 1, 2015. In February 2018, prosecutors with the Denver District Attorney’s Office charged Robert Feldman with murder in the first degree and he was found guilty as charged. The Honorable Judge Edward D. Bronfin immediately imposed a sentence of life in prison without the possibility of parole.

“Despite his creative efforts to evade justice, today Robert Feldman was found guilty of murdering his wife, Stacy Feldman” said Denver DA Beth McCann. “I am extremely proud of the outstanding work by our prosecutors, investigators, victim advocates, support staff, and the Denver police detectives who never gave up on securing justice for Stacy. Moreover, I thank the jury for performing their civic duty over these past three weeks.”
