

NEWS RELEASE –

April 21, 2023

Contact:

Carolyn Tyler, Communications Director
carolyn.tyler@denverda.org, 720-913-9025

Remaining Two Defendants Plead Guilty to 2021 Crime Spree

DENVER—Denver District Attorney Beth McCann today announced that the last two defendants have entered guilty pleas after going on a vicious crime spree in Denver, Aurora and Lakewood in August 2021. Their actions resulted in the shooting death of 18-year-old Shmuel Silverberg.

Isaiah Freeman (currently 20-years-old) – pleaded guilty to one count of aggravated robbery (F3) and to one count of first degree assault (F3) involving multiple victims. This is Denver District Court case number 21CR04942.

Samuel Fussell (currently 20-years-old) – pleaded guilty to one count of first degree burglary (F3) and to one count of first degree assault (F3) involving multiple victims. This is Denver District Court case number 21CR05094.

Both Freeman and Fussell are scheduled to for sentencing on May 31, 2023 at 1:30 in courtroom 5D. The other three defendants, Noah Loepp-Hall, Seth Larhode and Aden Sides, entered guilty pleas last month.

About the Denver DA's Office:

Our mission is to professionally and competently prosecute crimes and investigate criminal activity on behalf of the people of the State of Colorado and to seek equal justice for all in the criminal justice system. Our mission includes the prevention and deterrence of crimes, support of the well-being of victims, participation in the community, transparency, accountability, and improvement of the criminal justice system to provide fair alternatives to incarceration in appropriate cases.