Denver DA's Offices Secures Murder Conviction

DENVER—Denver District Attorney Beth McCann today announced that on May 4, 2023, a Denver jury found Cameron Spain (current age 33) guilty of the January 2022 murder of Mr. Tony Bozman who was 38-years old at the time of his death.

On Saturday, January 15, 2022, two RTD employees came upon Bozman alongside the roadway at 29th Street and Arkins Court and called 911. Denver police, fire and paramedics responded to the scene and transported Mr. Bozman to the hospital where he succumbed to his injuries. On January 24, 2022, the Denver Office of the Medical Examiner ruled Bozman's death a homicide and determined the cause to be from gunshot wounds.

Denver police detectives conducted an extensive investigation that led to Spain's arrest. Prosecutors charged Spain with one count of murder in the first degree and after deliberating for approximately two hours, the jury returned a guilty verdict.

Spain is scheduled to be sentenced on May 18, 2023, at 1:30 p.m. in Denver District Court courtroom 5B. This is case number 22CR770.
